Bingo Caller's Card

Use your Bingo Caller's Card to call the bingo and keep track of which words you have already called.

Print two copies of the caller's card. Cut one copy up, fold the squares in half, and put them in a hat. To call the bingo, pull a square out of the hat, unfold it and read it out.

When you have called a word/number, tick it off on the second copy of the caller's card. You can use the second copy of the caller's card to check if a player has a winning card during a game.

While at my second teaching job in Douglas County, Nevada, my school won a National Blue-Ribbon School Award.	Used to be a competitive lifter	I had tea with a Tibetan monk at a monastery in Tibet.	I have joined a cornhole league this fall :)	I am also a licensed cosmetologist
I am now right handed, but was born left-handed.	My oldest granddaughter is in her 2nd year of teaching secondary biology and earth science.	I was born in Germany.	I was an EWU Cheerleader and met my very best friend because of it.	My son said I was amazing when I started to learn Spanish in my 50s!
I make graduation quilts for family as they graduate high school. I've done over 50.	Born in Germany		I can name all 29 counties in the state of Utah. Those counties were put to song by my 4th grade teacher, and I can't get that darn tune out of my head.	I enjoy creative hobbies (photography, writing, and drawing are my favorites).
I grew up believing that everything--from the flowers in our garden to the cereal in my bowl-- has feelings and admittedly, it's been a hard belief to shake.	My neighbor and I rescued 10 kittens in our neighborhood this summer so I'm officially a "cat lady"	As a kid I would climb up the outside fire escapes at EWU and jump off the buildings into the snow drifts.	I grew up off the grid (20 acres; no phone/landline until I left for college; no indoor toilet)	I have been run over by a car.
I grew up on a street called "23th Street."	I have traveled to all 50 states	Legally, I didn't have a first or middle name until I was 7 years old.	First...people usually describe me as NOT fun/interesting/unusual but I have been helicopter skiing before	I was on the Red Team and won Bloomsday Corporate Cup!
